Supplement to the User's Guide to the Library

The following additional rules apply for the loan of DVDs:

1. Overdue fees for DVDs differ from the overdue fees for all other materials.

- DVDs may be borrowed for up to 1 week at no cost.
(for example, DVDs checked out on Monday may be returned on the following Monday.)

- The late fee for each overdue DVD is Euro 1,50 per day the library is open.

The due date for each DVD can be found on the check-out receipt.

2. DVDs are only for the library patron's personal use. DVDs may not be loaned to third parties.
3. Just as with all other library materials, the library patron is required to:
 - handle the DVDs with care
 - observe the copyright
 - cover the replacement costs for lost or damaged DVDs
4. Please play DVDs only on well-maintained electronic devices. Store DVDs in the covers when not in use and protect them from heat and magnetic fields. For example, please don't place them on top of or next to electronic devices of any kind. If you notice any damage, please notify the Library immediately.
